Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
-- Mark 13:31

WORDS OF EVERLASTING LIFE

"Heaven and earth will pass away," Jesus assures us in today's Gospel, "but my words will not pass away." Foreboding words about the end of the world may distress us, but Jesus' words bring us glory. Word-made-flesh, Jesus walked and talked among us. We have inherited his gospel. Jesus gave us the words of everlasting life so that we can look forward to his second coming with faith, hope, and love. While we wait, the Lord accompanies us in word and sacrament. If we begin to feel anxious, Jesus is with us. We can turn to his words in the Bible and experience his closeness. If we are overwhelmed by our shortcomings and sins, we can participate in the liturgy and feel the intimacy of Jesus in the Eucharist and in one another. The world will end, certainly. But Jesus, the Word of God, has already conquered death. Jesus invites us be unafraid. Over and over again in the Gospels, Jesus says not to fear, offering instead his deep and lasting peace.

PALABRAS DE VIDA ETERNA

"Cielo y tierra pasarán", Jesús nos asegura en el Evangelio de hoy "pero mis palabras no pasarán". Las palabras premonitorias acerca del fin del mundo pueden angustiarnos, pero las palabras de Jesús nos dan gloria. La Palabra hecha carne, Jesús caminó y habló en medio de nosotros. Heredamos su Evangelio. Jesús nos dio palabras de vida eterna para que podamos esperar su segunda venida con fe, esperanza y amor. Mientras esperamos, el Señor nos acompaña en palabra y Sacramento. Si comenzamos a sentirnos ansiosos, Jesús está con nosotros. Podemos volver a sus palabras en la Biblia y experimentar su cercanía. Si estamos abrumados por nuestros defectos y pecados, podemos participar en la liturgia y sentir la intimidad de Jesús en la Eucaristía y en los demás. Ciertamente el mundo tendrá un fin. Pero Jesús, la Palabra de Dios, ya ha vencido la muerte. Jesús nos invita a no tener miedo. Una y otra vez en los evangelios, Jesús dice no temer, ofreciéndonos en su lugar su paz profunda y eternal.

The Lord has done great things for us and we filled with joy.

Psalm 126:3

Turkey, dressing and pumpkin pie are the standards for a typical American Thanksgiving. Americans typically look back to 1621 as the first recorded Thanksgiving, where the Plymouth colonists and Wampanoag Indians gathered for a three-day feast of Thanksgiving to God for the harvest. Historically, Thanksgiving was viewed as a holy day more than a holiday, where society ceased from their work and gave thanks to God for all His goodness. Faith not football was the focus of the day. It was a day of worship and a family meal where the bounteous goodness of the Lord's provision was remembered.

We must never consider that Thanksgiving Day was an American invention. Ceremonies and periods of thanksgiving are woven through the entire tapestry of history. We find them in the Jewish Calendar of Feasts, in other world religions, in European cultures and native practices of North America, South America, Asia and Africa. Many believe that the Pilgrims brought the idea with them from Europe, while Native Americans also observed special days to honor a good harvest. For Catholics, thanksgiving is a daily and weekly occurrence through the Mass, where the Eucharistic Sacrifice is our Great Thanksgiving. Special offerings, such as the Mass in St. Augustine in 1598 served to heighten our awareness of God's hand in our lives.

Today, Thanksgiving has become more of a day we begin by watching parades and then take in large amounts of food and football. According to some calculations, 46 million turkeys-around 550 million pounds-will be consumed during Thanksgiving this year. [Ironically, during early days of our nation Benjamin Franklin wanted to have the turkey declared our national bird.]

Catholics are called to redeem the day as a time of thanksgiving by attending Mass and having prayer together as family and friends. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops published this prayer...

*"Lord, we thank you for the goodness of our people and for the spirit of justice
that fills this nation.
We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities.
We thank you for our work and our rest,
for one another, and for our homes.
We thank you, Lord:
accept our thanksgiving on this day.
We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen."*
