Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory.
-- Isaiah 62:2

Signs in John—Epiphanies of the Royal Wedding

John the Evangelist describes the turning of water into wine at the wedding in Cana as “the beginning” of the signs that Jesus would perform to manifest God’s glory. “Beginning” here means more than first in a series. “The beginning” points to the source of all the signs in that “royal wedding” of divinity and humanity in Jesus as the Word become flesh, elevating and transforming everything it touches. The wine that Jesus provided was better than the water that had previously filled the stone jars, and it was better than the wine the guests had already been drinking.

Early Christian writers saw in this transformation of water into wine an anticipation of Jesus’ transformation of wine into his own blood. The epiphany at Cana shows us how to become participants in that great wedding of divinity and humanity. Cleansed in holy waters and sharers in the wine that has become Christ’s blood, we too can be transformed into signs of God’s glorious love.

Los signos en Juan—Las Epifanías del Matrimonio Real

Juan el evangelista describe la conversión de agua en vino en la boda de Cana como el comienzo de los signos que Jesús realizaría para manifestar la gloria de Dios. El comienzo aquí significa más que lo primero en una serie. El comienzo señala al origen de todos los signos en que el matrimonio real de la divinidad y la humanidad en Jesús como la Palabra hecha carne, elevando y transformando todo lo que toca. El vino que Jesús proporciona fue mejor que el agua con previamente había llenado las ánforas, y era mucho mejor que el vino que los invitados ya habían estado tomando. Los primeros escritores cristianos vieron en esta transformación del agua en vino una anticipación de la transformación de Jesús al vino de su propia sangre. La epifanía en Cana nos muestra cómo hacernos colaboradores en esa gran boda de la divinidad y humanidad. Limpios en las aguas sagradas y divididos en el vino en el que la sangre de Jesús se ha convertido, nosotros también podemos ser transformados en signos del amor glorioso de Dios.

Vatican announces plenary indulgence, papal blessing for Walk for Life West Coast

The Vatican has granted a plenary indulgence and a papal blessing for those who participate in the Walk for Life West Coast, including those who are sick and infirm and praying along with the participants in the Jan. 26 rally and walk along Market Street.

All those present at the Walk for Life rally will receive a papal blessing, conveyed by San Francisco Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone, and with that a plenary indulgence, according to a letter from Vatican. Those who participate in "sacred celebrations" associated with the Walk throughout the dioceses of the area will also receive the plenary indulgence.

Prayer for the Solemnity of our Patron St. Timothy

Dear God, we praise you and thank you for the diversity of gifts and graces within our faith community of St. Timothy. You have blessed us with a beautiful variety of people, personalities, interests, and cultures. Help us O God to act as one united family working together with the same purpose. During our celebrations, may we see the image of our patron saint as a perfect example for all of us to follow in our daily life. As he came from diverse cultures and lived his life carrying out the mission of his baptism – acting as priest, prophet, and king, help us to imitate him with love for Your glory. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Timothy SVDP Conference

The St. Vincent de Paul meetings are held on the last Tuesday of every month. Our next regular meeting will be Tuesday, January 29th at 7 pm in the Parish Office. If you would like to join our team, please call Ana Lucas at 650 345-4718.

PANTRY NEEDS: Hygiene products, soap bars, toothpaste, toothbrushes and toilet tissue. Your gift of cash, food and Safeway Cards are much appreciated.

SELF-DISCIPLINE

The greatest of all warriors in the siege of Troy had not the preeminence because nature had given him strength and he carried the largest bow, but because self-discipline had taught him how to bend it. --Daniel Webster

COLD AND FLU SEASON

During this cold and flu season all parishioners are reminded to use common good sense. Those who are ill are not obliged to attend mass and should stay home to recover. If you are feeling ill today, please refrain from partaking of the Blood of Christ from the communal chalice. We also ask that those who are not well refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace. No one who fears infection should feel obligated to share the sign of peace or receive Holy Communion from the communal chalice. We pray for the health and recovery of all who are ill and not with us today.

ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL 2019

Goal:$63,357

The Archdiocesan Annual Appeal provides parishioners throughout the Archdiocese a unique opportunity to come together. Through the AAA, the over ninety parishes in our archdiocese unite as one!

The theme for this year’s Annual Appeal is “I will show you my faith by my works.” James 2:18

Together, we are able to demonstrate our faith through the AAA by supporting such critical needs as youth and young adults, parish schools and students, social ministries, ecumenical efforts, and the greater church.

(You will receive a letter from the Archbishop and a brochure in the mail by the end of January.)
