Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever.

-- Revelation 1:18a

PEACE BE WITH YOU

Our Gospel reading today depicts the disciples in a terrifying moment. They have locked their doors, huddling together in safety at a time when the Lord has transformed the entire course of human events. Jesus has risen from the dead. He has destroyed death and unlocked eternal life. But who can fully grasp all of this? Not even Thomas, one of the twelve devoted companions of Jesus, understands what has happened. Those of us who have never faced maltreatment for our faith can only imagine the disciples panic. Unimpeded by their bolted doors, Jesus visits his frightened friends. His appearance must have been shocking, since he says to them Peace be with you not once, but twice. If the disciples hoped Jesus would come back to them, they might have wished he would appear as a victorious leader or glorious king. Instead, he comes as they have known him and most need him: as a companion, and he brings with him the eternal peace of God. They might have wanted a bodyguard; instead he gives them peace.

LA PAZ SEA CON USTEDES

La lectura del Evangelio de hoy describe a los discípulos en un momento alarmante. Pusieron cerrojos a sus puertas, refugiándose juntos con seguridad en un momento cuando el Señor transformó el curso entero de los eventos humanos. Jesús resucitó de la muerte. Él destruyó la muerte y liberó la vida eterna. ¿Pero quién puede entender completamente todo esto? Ni siquiera Tomás, uno de los Doce devotos compañeros de Jesús, entendió lo que había pasado. Aquellos de nosotros que nunca hemos enfrentado maltrato a causa de nuestra fe podemos solo imaginar el pánico de los discípulos. Sin ningún problema con las puertas cerradas, Jesús visita a sus amigos asustados. Su apariencia debió de haber sido impactante, pues les dice la paz sea con ustedes no una vez, sino dos. Si los discípulos esperaban que Jesús regresara a ellos, entonces deseaban que regresara como un líder victorioso o rey glorioso. Al contrario, él viene como lo conocieron y como más lo necesitaban, como un compañero, y trae con él la paz eterna de Dios. Podrían haber querido un guardaespaldas; en cambio él les da la paz.
