Palm Sunday—March 25, 2018

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord Today we prepare to commemorate the death and resurrection of Jesus. Isaiah reminds us of the suffering that Jesus will endure. He says Jesus will not be disgraced or put to shame, but we know that there will be humiliation at the hands of others. The psalm recalls the fear and sorrow as we repeat over and over Jesus' words of anguish and abandonment. Philippians describes Jesus' humility and the exaltation that will follow. But it is Mark who takes us through the last days of Jesus' life, the ordinary and the extraordinary. He describes the meal shared with the one who will betray him; his anguished prayers with friends who cannot stay awake and will later deny him; his treatment at the hands of priests, elders, soldiers; and finally his death and the recognition that truly Jesus is the Son of God.

RECOGNITION

Only a centurion, who with the women looking on from a distance sees Jesus breathe his last, knows what we are to make of this. We are to understand, even before the Resurrection, that “this man was the Son of God.” How did the centurion know? The centurion knew because he stood facing Jesus, watching him, looking into his face as he died. Though everything was done to strip Jesus of his sense of self, never, ever did he give up his complete and total commitment to God his Father. Even in his anguish and abandonment, he cries out to God. We are left to imagine how his Father answered him, but whatever Jesus heard in his last moments, it left on his face and in his last breath so clear a sign of God’s love that one of his crucifiers recognized who he was. The only thing left to Jesus when he died was the abiding certainty of his Father’s love. That is a certainty that Jesus took with him to his grave and to his resurrection.

RECONOCIMIENTO

Solo un centurión, quien con las mujeres observando desde lejos, notan el último aliento de Jesús, y sabe lo que debe hacerse. Debemos entender, aún antes de la Resurrección, que “este hombre era el Hijo de Dios”. ¿Cómo lo supo el centurión? El centurión lo supo porque estaba parado viendo de frente a Jesús, observándolo, mirando hacia su cara en el momento de su muerte. Aunque se hizo todo para despojar a Jesús de su sentido de ser; nunca, nunca renunció a su total compromiso con Dios su Padre. Aún en su angustia y abandono, él clama a Dios. Nos quedamos imaginando cómo le respondió su Padre, pero aquello que Jesús escuchara en sus últimos momentos, dejó en su rostro y en su último aliento muy claro un signo del amor de Dios que uno de sus verdugos reconoce quién era. Lo único que le queda a Jesús cuando muere es la certeza permanente del amor de su Padre. Esa es una certeza que Jesús se llevó a su tumba y a su resurrección

The Blessed Virgin Mary...

In conceiving Christ, in bringing Him forth, in nourishing Him, in presenting Him to the Father in the Temple, in suffering with her Son as He died on the cross, she cooperated in the work of the Savior, in an altogether singular way, by obedience, faith, hope and burning love, to restore supernatural life to souls. As a result, she is our Mother in the order of grace.
