3rd Sunday of Easter — April 15, 2018

You alone, O LORD, bring security to my dwelling.
-- Psalm 4:9

NOT FOR HEAVEN ONLY

In the Gospel passage, Jesus specifically emphasizes his bodily presence. He invites the disciples to touch him, and he eats some fish in front of them. He makes it clear that he is not a ghost and did not shed his physicality or his humanity when he was raised. The disciples began to understand Jesus in a new way. Christians later articulated this as Jesus' bodily resurrection. The resurrected Jesus, both human and divine, reigns both in heaven and on earth. So when Jesus sent his disciples, and today sends all of us, to proclaim God's kingdom, he never means "for heaven only." God aims to renew, not reject, human bodies, human culture, and the created universe. God's project for us is here and now, within all the limitations and messiness of daily life. We are called to care for each other, for the earth, and for all God's beloved creation.

NO SOLAMENTE PARA EL CIELO

En el pasaje del Evangelio, Jesús específicamente enfatiza su presencia corporal. Él invita a sus discípulos a tocarlo, y él come algo de pescado enfrente de ellos. Él claramente dice que no es un fantasma y que no se despojó de su humanidad cuando resucitó. Los discípulos empiezan a entender a Jesús de una nueva manera. Mucho tiempo después, los cristianos expresaron esto como la resurrección de Jesús en la carne. Jesús resucitado, tanto en lo humano como lo divino, reina tanto en el cielo como en la tierra.

Así que cuando Jesús envía a sus discípulos, y hoy cuando nos envía a todos, a proclamar el Reino de Dios, él nunca quiso decir "solamente para el cielo". Dios busca renovar, no rechazar el cuerpo humano, la cultura del hombre y lo creado en el universo. El proyecto de Dios para nosotros está aquí y ahora, dentro de todas las limitaciones y el desorden de la vida diaria. Estamos llamados a cuidar unos de otros, a la Tierra y toda la creación amada por Dios.

“It is more necessary than ever to intensify liturgical life within our communities by means of an appropriate formation of the pastors and of all the faithful with a view to the active, conscious and full participation in liturgical celebrations desired by the Council.”

*Pope John Paul II,
Apostolic Letter on the 40th Anniversary of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy*

Bridging The Gap Through Ministry Liturgy Committee Ministry of Liturgical

What does the word Liturgy mean? The term "liturgy" literally in Greek means "work for the people", but a better translation is "public service" or "public work", as made clear from the origin of the term as described above. ... The entire congregation participates in and offers the liturgy to God.

Participating in Liturgical Ministry is an excellent opportunity to fulfill your baptismal call of service to one another. Our liturgies utilize the talents and gifts that God has given this community to the fullest extent. Whether participation is through “behind the scenes” preparation and planning or through a public role of service within the Mass, parishioner contributions help our liturgies to be truly life-giving celebrations. Please prayerfully consider joining one of these ministries. There will be a member available after all Masses to help you sign up. Or you can email them at liturgicalministries@sttims.us or call the parish office at 342-2468
