Easter Sunday—April 1, 2018

At Easter, the Church resumes singing Alleluia at Mass. Our Alleluia celebrates the central events of the Christian faith, and the central turning point of human history. The resurrection of Jesus first revealed the victory of Jesus on the cross. Jesus fulfilled God's promises to rescue Israel and all of humanity from the effects of sin and death. Easter reveals that God's new creation has now been launched, with Jesus' resurrected body as its first demonstration. This new creation will be completed upon Jesus' return, when heaven and earth are fully joined. Right now, in this new Reign of God in Jesus, the Holy Spirit empowers us to join God's project, to renew all of God's beloved creation. And Easter reminds us that wherever we are in life, in whatever difficulties or messes we find ourselves, God offers us a new beginning. Alleluia indeed!

FROM DARKNESS TO LIGHT

Today's Gospel begins in darkness. Mary of Magdala comes to the tomb before dawn. She, then the two disciples, see the empty tomb, and are amazed and terrified. The passage stops before Jesus first appears, which allows us to pause and more fully notice their disorientation and confusion.

John's Gospel has many images of the passage from darkness to light and from blindness to sight. When Jesus cured the blind man in John 9, and raised Lazarus in John 11, their transition to the light was gradual and difficult. The disciples, too, were often slow and resistant to understanding what Jesus was saying and doing, both before and after the Resurrection.

DE LA OSCURIDAD A LA LUZ

Hoy el Evangelio empieza en la oscuridad. María Magdalena viene al sepulcro antes del amanecer. Ella, y luego dos discípulos, ven el sepulcro vacío y al mismo tiempo están espantados y asombrados. El pasaje se detiene antes de la primera aparición, lo que nos permite hacer una pausa y notar completamente su desorientación y confusión. El Evangelio de Juan tiene muchas imágenes del pasaje de la oscuridad a la luz y de la ceguera a la vista. Cuando Jesús sanó al hombre ciego en Juan 9, y devolvió la vida a Lázaro en Juan 11, su transición a la luz fue gradual y difícil. Los discípulos también fueron lentos y recios a entender lo que Jesús decía y hacía, tanto antes y como después de la Resurrección.

*Together with the St. Timothy Parish Staff,
I wish you and yours a Blessed Easter Sunday.*

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the love you have for our parish. Easter Season is not only a commemoration of Jesus’ resurrection, but also an experience of ‘passover,’ passover meaning moving from complacency to involvement. In the spirit of ‘passover’ a selected ministry will be highlighted each weekend during the Easter Season to share with you their purpose, their involvement and their invitation to anyone who would like to join them!

Lent and Holy Week were celebrated with great faith, love and commitment and I therefore want to thank all those who made this happen.

Richard Castillo and Marilynn Mariano for once again providing us with their magic touch in decorating our church for the special liturgical events and also for their lead in the Wednesday night Soup Suppers. Thank you to ALL of YOU who brought soup, attended the suppers and supported St. Timothy with your faith and dedication.

St. Timothy’s Knights of Columbus for your presence during the Holy Week celebrations. Ensuring that our parishioners and guests were able to join our services with ease of parking and direction.

Y.E.S., Youth Expressing Spirit for their hours of preparing the plastic eggs for our Easter Egg hunt today and to all of YOU who so generously donated the goodies that were used to stuff those eggs.

To all of our dedicated Liturgical Ministers, our R.C.I.A. Team and most especially to all of you, our parishioners whose faith, dedication and love make St. Timothy Catholic Church in San Mateo “home” to all those who enter and worship with us.

I pray that we continually experience Easter through our love and involvement in the parish.

Padre ~

Bridging The Gap Through Ministry

Ministry of the Week

Y.E.S. (Grades 6-12)

Cecille Toy 650-245-2297 or st\_tims\_yes@sttims.us

YES, Youth Express Spirit, the parish youth ministry that is open to youth in 6th through 12th grade. This ministry is focused on developing a strong lifestyle rooted in the Catholic faith through service, learning, and fellowship. You have likely seen many of the activities that the ministry is involved in, including sponsoring the 2nd Sunday family Mass, bake sales, Samaritan House volunteering, holiday food and toy deliveries, retreats, and youth rallies. We encourage anyone who is interested to contact us as we need the support from youth, teens, young adults - especially young adults!!, and adults in various capacities. Please prayerfully consider where the Lord might be calling you. We pray that it is towards building the future of our parish leaders!

If you would like to learn more or would like to express interest, contact Cecille at the number or website in this article or look out for someone in a YES shirt during the second Sunday Mass!
