The LORD secures justice and the rights of all the oppressed.

Psalm 103:6

ROOTED IN GODS MERCY

In todays Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about a man who had planted a fig tree in his orchard. The fig tree was not bearing fruit, and the owner was ready to give up. The gardener is more patient. He will cultivate the soil around it and fertilize it. Then, if it still fails to bear fruit, it can be cut down. The parable tells of Gods patient mercy. Like the gardener, the Lord wants us to be rooted in Gods merciful love and live fruitful lives, responsive to the grace and goodness in which we stand. Like the fig tree, however, we sometimes fail to bear good fruit, remaining dormant, living for ourselves, grumbling when we face challenges rather than relying on the fertilizer of the sacraments, especially Reconciliation and the Eucharist. Moses was never the same after his encounter with God on Mount Horeb. We are called to be open to an encounter with Gods love every day. Lent is a season when we more consciously turn away from sin and toward God, opening ourselves to conversion, change of mind and heart, in order to be touched and changed by the Lords patient mercy. Doing so, we can be sure we will never be the same again.

ENRAIZADOS EN LA MISERICORDIA DE DIOS

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús cuenta una parábola de un hombre que plantó un árbol de higos en su huerta; pero, el árbol no daba frutos y el dueño estaba por desistir su cultivo. El jardinero tenía más paciencia; pues se encargaría de cuidar el terreno y fertilizarlo. Luego, si todavía no daba fruto, entonces lo cortaría. La parábola nos habla de la paciencia de Dios. Como el jardinero, el Señor quiere que nos enraicemos en el amor misericordioso de Dios y tengamos vidas fructíferas, conscientes a la gracia y bondad en la cual estamos. Como el árbol de higos, realmente, algunas veces fallamos en dar buenos frutos, permaneciendo dormidos, viviendo solo para nosotros, quejándonos cuando enfrentamos desafíos en lugar de confiar en el abono de los sacramentos, especialmente la Reconciliación y la Eucaristía. Moisés nunca fue el mismo después de su encuentro con Dios en el monte Sinaí. Estamos llamados a estar abiertos a un encuentro diario con el amor de Dios. La Cuaresma es un tiempo de gracia cuando más conscientemente nos alejamos del pecado y nos acercamos a Dios, abriéndonos a la conversión, cambio de mente y corazón para ser tocados y cambiados por la misericordia paciente del Señor. Al hacerlo, podemos estar seguros de que nunca volveremos a ser los mismos.

What are the Stations of the Cross and why do they matter?

The Stations of the Cross refers to the fourteen images depicting Jesus' Passion that we see in many churches. These stations are a meditative exercise that has been around since before the Middle Ages. The purpose of the exercise is to make a spiritual pilgrimage through what is arguably the most dramatic moment of Christ's life. For me, each station is a profile in character, and each one is a demonstration of Jesus' integrity. We can learn what it means to be truly human—and by this I mean the kind of human that God wants us to be—by meditating on these events.

The Stations of the Cross is a pathway to spiritual awakening.

How is that so?

The Stations of the Cross by their very nature, and the images associated with them, are emotionally charged. They aren't just words or Bible passages. They are pictures and pictures often create emotions in ways that words cannot. The Stations reveal the lowest point in Jesus' life and, in turn, the Stations resonate with the difficult times we experience in life as well as the tough times that we hold in our memories. In this way, the Stations appeal more to the heart than they do to the head. And by heart I don't mean the organ that pumps blood throughout our bodies, but the biblical understanding of heart, which is to say the center of our beings, the place where experiences find meaning. After Mary is visited by the angel Gabriel and is told that she will be the Mother of God, the Bible says she ponders the news not in her mind but in her heart. When we take Jesus's suffering into us and ponder the events he experienced in our hearts, we are stirred from spiritual sleepwalking. To be awakened like this can be a little frightening. But the point of the exercise is to nudge us into thinking about how, as Christians, if we're supposed to be imitating Christ's life, what do the stations indicate about where we are on our own faith journey?
