It is [Christ] whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

-- Colossians 1:28b

THOSE WHO DO JUSTICE

Psalm 15 describes the life of justice and the reward of joy in God's presence. We know that justice always involves service. Can we find joy in service, perhaps even in suffering?

Saint Paul writes to the Colossians that his life of suffering service to them and to the other churches is a source of joy to him. His relationship with them, although filled with affliction, is its own reward, as he brings people into relationship with Jesus Christ. Abraham and Sarah, the righteous elderly couple of the Old Testament, are emblematic of this kind of relationship. Abraham welcomes strangers with eager hospitality, not knowing that his visitors are divine messengers, even the Holy One of Israel! His spouse, Sarah, does all she can to aid Abraham in making their guests comfortable and welcome. In return for their generous hospitality, the childless aged couple are rewarded with a blessing--a son, Isaac. How do they differ from Martha, though? Martha allows her duties and service to overwhelm her with anxiety. Abraham fairly leaps for joy to be of service to his guests. If you are a Martha, the lesson is to keep serving but find the joy that gives true meaning to your service.

AQUELLOS QUE PROCURAN LA JUSTICIA

El Salmo 15 describe la vida de la justicia y el reconocimiento de alegría en la presencia de Dios. Sabemos que la justicia siempre involucra el servicio. ¿Podemos encontrar alegría en el servicio, quizá aun cuando es sufrimiento? San Pablo escribe a los colosenses que esta vida de servicio sufre a ellos y a otras iglesias es un origen de alegría para él. Su relación con ellos, aunque llena con aflicciones, es nuestra propia recompensa, porque él hace que las personas se relacionen con Jesucristo. Abraham y Sara, la pareja anciana y justa del Antiguo Testamento, son emblemáticos de este tipo de relación. Abraham recibe cordialmente a esos extranjeros con una hospitalidad entusiasta, sin saber que sus visitantes son enviados celestiales, ¡aun el Santo de Israel! Su esposa, Sara, quien hace todo lo que ella puede para ayudar a Abraham para hacer sentir a sus invitados cómodos y bienvenidos. A cambio de su generosa hospitalidad, la pareja anciana sin hijos es recompensada con una bendición, un hijo, Isaac. ¿En qué se diferencian de Marta? Marta permite que sus deberes y servicio la abrumen con preocupación. Abraham brinca de alegría por atender a sus invitados. Si tú fueras Marta, la lección es seguir sirviendo, pero encontrando alegría que le dé un verdadero significado a tu servicio.

Update your St. Timothy's registration information!

To our St. Timothy community,

In an effort to update our data base, the parish office staff and volunteers will be working these next couple of months to collect and record information obtained through our Registration Sunday Project. This project will give current registered parishioners the opportunity to update their contact information as well as give those who are not currently registered the chance to do so. Please take a moment to stop at one of the designated tables outside after all Masses next weekend, July 27,28.

Benefits of being a registered parishioner of St. Timothy's

- A sense of belonging and identity to the parish community.
- A commitment to practice your faith.
- Enables the pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to minister to you. This is especially important during a time of crisis so that the pastoral staff can attend to your spiritual needs and the needs of your family.
- Helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that we can provide you timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Also, if you use offertory envelopes or online giving, you will also receive a year-end statement of your donations for income tax purposes. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in your address or phone number.
- Active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.

“so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others”.

Romans 12:5

RCIA
A JOURNEY IN FAITH

- ◇ Are you feeling called to deeper faith?
- ◇ Are you interested in becoming Catholic?
- ◇ Do you have questions about the Catholic faith?
- ◇ Have you been baptized but not yet received Confirmation and Holy Communion?

RCIA encourages a change of heart and transformation of spirit while deepening our understanding of God. The program begins in September and typically completes in May. The sacraments are received at the Easter Vigil which is the Saturday before Easter. On that night Christians around the world celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord.
