WEALTH AND IDOLATRY

In today's Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus vividly demonstrates his concern about the dangers of wealth in the parable of the rich fool. The problem is not about saving for the future. The problem is revealed in the rich man's language of self-absorption: it's all about him. There is no gratitude or responsibility toward God or toward others. He seems to believe that he can secure his future by hoarding his wealth and possessions. It is a form of idolatry. Part of how we decide what gives life meaning is deciding who or what we serve. Who or what claims our primary energies and best efforts? Idolatry places one's primary trust in something imagined or created, instead of God. Idolatry is a central theme discussed throughout the scriptures, and idolatry of wealth is no less a danger in modern times than it was in ancient days.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Del 1 al 5 de agosto los capitalinos en El Salvador celebran la fiesta del Salvador del Mundo, cuando recuerdan la Transfiguración de Jesús en el Monte Tabor. Como muchas fiestas patronales en Latinoamérica esta semana está llena de carnavales y desfiles. La celebración principal es una procesión religiosa con la imagen de Jesús, el Divino Salvador del mundo. La estatua de Jesús con sus brazos extendidos en bendición es llevada desde la Basílica del Sagrado Corazón hasta la Catedral Metropolitana. Vestida de un rojo que recuerda su pasión, la imagen es cargada sobre los hombros de una veintena de fieles. Al llegar a la catedral la imagen patronal es puesta en una torre de más de 20 metros de alto. Eventualmente la estatua revestida de blanco aparece de una esfera encima de la torre en medio de gritos, aplausos y cantos. Esta esfera azul representa el mundo entero, mundo salvado por Cristo. La transfiguración de esta imagen en San Salvador recuerda la pasión y resurrección de Jesús, eventos claves que han hecho de él, el Salvador del Mundo entero.

A TYPICAL DAY FOR OUR VOLUNTEERS

Housing costs make up the largest percentage of household budgets which translates into the majority of our calls are for help with rent. Our home visitors interview the people in their home to learn of their challenges and then offer them a variety of possible services by local agencies. Often the client has already exhausted such services or has run into “loopholes” that limit the assistance available. For example, one couple living in a 2 bedroom apartment with their daughter are both on disability, receive Section 8 help with rent, food stamps, etc. The daughter has a minimum pay service job to help with basics. However, the daughter is now over 18 so the couple only qualifies for a one bedroom apartment and face a large increase in rent. So SVDP will help with a deposit for first month’s rent in a new location.

PANTRY ITEMS ALWAYS NEEDED: Pasta, cereal and hygiene products (soap bars, toothpaste and tissue paper)
