Announcement by Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone of the death of Cardinal William J. Levada:

"I share the sad news that Cardinal William Levada died peacefully in his sleep last night in his apartment in Italy. He was 83 years of age.

"As you know, the Cardinal was Archbishop of San Francisco from December 1995 until the spring of 2005 when Pope Benedict XVI asked him to serve as Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. He served in that capacity in Rome from 2005 until 2012, and was the highest ranking American in the Roman Curia. I've known him ever since he was my seminar moderator in my first year of theology. I always appreciated his guidance and to his commitment to the integrity of the Church's Faith.

"Funeral Services at Saint Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco are pending. Please join me in praying for the repose of Cardinal Levada's soul."
