*My steps have been steadfast in your paths, my feet have not faltered.
I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God.*

-- Psalm 17:5-6a

WE CAN ONLY IMAGINE

In the days of Jesus, belief in the resurrection of the dead had not achieved universal acceptance. In fact, the Sadducees in today's Gospel were staunch resurrection deniers and tried to trick Jesus. Turning the tables, Jesus states that Moses in the distant past believed that the God of our ancestors in faith is truly God of the living, and that all are alive to God, whether still living or dead. Death is just a phase, a doorway, maybe a tesseract. We really don't know. Jesus reassures us that those are unnecessary concerns for the faithful, just as the specifics of worldly life will no longer be relevant. Not only will our earthly bodies be changed, but all that we knew from mortal existence--all marriage, all family, all relationships--will be transformed in ways we can't possibly imagine. All that we have will be ours again. So we should stop worrying and live so as to be worthy of whatever comes next, for when we are embraced in the eternal love-feast of glorified existence with God, our joy will indeed be full.

SOLO PODEMOS IMAGINAR

En la época de Jesús, la creencia de la resurrección de la muerte todavía no había alcanzado una aceptación universal. De hecho, los saduceos del Evangelio de hoy fueron firmes negadores de la resurrección e intentaron ponerle trampas a Jesús. Cambiándoles la perspectiva, Jesús afirma que Moisés en el pasado creía que el Dios de nuestros ancestros en la fe es verdaderamente el Dios de los vivos, y que todos estamos vivos para Dios, ya sea que todavía vivamos o se esté muerto. La muerte solo es una etapa, una puerta u otra dimensión. Realmente no lo sabemos. Jesús nos asegura que esas son preocupaciones innecesarias para los fieles, así como los detalles de la vida del mundo no serán importantes. No solamente nuestros cuerpos mortales van a cambiar, sino todo aquellos que conocimos de la existencia mortal, todo el matrimonio, toda la familia, todas nuestras relaciones, serán transformadas en formas que difícilmente podemos imaginar. Todo lo que tenemos será otra vez de nosotros. Así que debemos dejar de preocuparnos y vivir para ser dignos de aquello que venga después, ya que cuando estemos incorporados en la fiesta de amor eterno de la existencia gloriosa con Dios, nuestro gozo será pleno.
