Jesus prays for us.

This 7th Week of Easter, we read about Jesus is praying to the Father. The whole Chapter 17 of John's Gospel. Jesus prays for us. It's comforting to know in this time that we are in the midst of discerning about an important part of our Faith Life; that is our gathering as community of prayer. Jesus prays for us. Three times he asks our Father that we would all become one as he and the Father are one. Jesus prays that we would be one as he and the Father are one so that our oneness would be the manifestation of God's presence to the world. Oneness in the midst of difference becomes a sacramental presence of God's life in the world.

Jesus and the Father are one because they love and give themselves to each other. Oneness is a quality of life – God's life. Jesus' prayer for oneness is ultimately that we would be and live like God.

Oneness is not about eliminating differences. It is about love. Love is the only thing that can ever overcomes division.

If Jesus is praying for our oneness then he is also recognizing and rejecting the boundaries and differences that divide us. There are divisions within ourselves, our families, our churches, our nation. We live in a world full of divisions – based on gender, economic conditions, religion, race, language and politics, education.....! These divisions exist not only

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11)

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth
(Psalm 104)

Second Reading — In one Spirit we are baptized into one body and given to drink of one Spirit
(1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13)

Gospel — Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit
(John 20:19-23)

PENTECOST

Unless the eye catch fire,
God will not be seen.
Unless the ear catch fire,
God will not be heard.
Unless the tongue catch fire,
God will not be named.
Unless the heart catch fire,
God will not be loved.
Unless the mind catch fire,
God will not be known.
—William Blake

out there in the world but primarily and first in the human heart.

Though Jesus is praying to the Father, you and I will in large part be the ones to answer Jesus' prayer. We answer his prayer every time we choose how to love, who to love, where to love. It is time we answer Jesus' prayer and deal with one another in love.

PRAYER IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

*O God of compassion, your people are anxious
in this time of pandemic.
Send your Holy Spirit among us
to dispel our fears.
We cry out to you in our confusion;
comfort us in our affliction.
Grant our leaders wisdom to guide us.
Strengthen and sustain those who are ill,
and be with those who care for them.
Help us to travel this road
in solidarity with our neighbors, with our eyes fixed on the salvation promised us through the death and resurrection of your Son,
who is Lord forever and ever.
Amen.*
