Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ October 29, 2017

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind” (Matthew 22:37). In this greatest and first commandment, Jesus describes deep and intentional love of God. Like the Thessalonians to whom Saint Paul wrote, we are to turn away from anything that could become an idol, anything that takes first place in our lives ahead of God. Loving God so completely calls us to place our lives in the heart of God, assured that when we do, all will be well. When we love God with all our heart, soul, and mind, we gradually learn to see the world and all people through the eyes of God, who is love.

Si permitiéramos que Dios posea todo nuestro ser, nuestro corazón, nuestra alma y nuestra mente-- o como se dice en teología, intelecto, memoria, y voluntad--entonces sabríamos lo que es correcto y cómo tratar a nuestros semejantes. No sólo sabríamos lo que es correcto, sino que querríamos hacerlo y amaríamos a la otra persona lo suficiente para hacerlo gustosamente, por amor a Dios.

Attending Youth On A Mission honestly made me a better version of myself. It gave me the opportunity to not just meet new people, but it also strengthened my commitment to God and to my ministry. I left YOAM with so many amazing, wonderful memories and new-formed friendships that would have never happened if it weren't for you. God bless you for helping YES go to these life-changing events.
